WHAT WILL IRVING TELL?

The Ex-Bank Burglar Summoned Before the Lexow Committee.

WITHESS HERMANN'S CASE

The Woman Undecided Whether to Voluntarily Came to New York or Ave.

GOFF HAS ANOTHER MYSTERY.

Intimates that It is of a Political Nature, but Is Not Ready te Investigate It.

The announcement that Police Commisoner John C. Sheehan would be a witness before the Lexow Committee this morn-Superior Court fully an hour before the regular time of opening the ball. There was an air of expectancy about the gathring, which showed how great an interest is taken in the investigation at this time and every one seemed to be prepared for some sensational developments. Goff early in the morning that there was very little probability that the witness, Mrs. Mathida Hermann, who is detained in Jersey City, would be or could be brought to this city to-day, unless she should voluntarily consent to come over and waive extradition procoedings, which was very unlikely.

There was considerable mystery about the sharge of perjury which has been 23e ag inst the woman, and on which is & ld there, but it was said this morning that it arose in a case in which she was implicated nearly two rs ago, when a charge of robbery a made against the keeper of a sorderly house, in which she was interested in behalf of the complainants, and made an affidavit that was afterwards shown to be false.

wards shown to be false.

At any rate, nothing was ever done in the matter, and it was sail that she had been promised immunity from prosecution on this charge, if she would come to New York and testify before the Lexow Committee. The knowledge that such a charge was hanging over her the Lexow committee. The knowledge that such a charge was hanging over her the loss by the fire was $8,000. enabled the Lexow agents to make technical complaint against her yester day in Justice Pott's court in Jersey City, on which she was held in $3,000

Chairman Lexow and Senators Bradley. O'Connor. Cantor and Robertson were in their places at 11 o'clock, but Mr. Goff had not yet put in an appearance. Neither was Commissioner Sheehan in evidence, but "Jimmy" Irving, the ex-bank burglar, sat over in the corner reserved for witnesses, and scanned the crowd calmiy with his single eye. He has a story to tell when Mr. Goff a ready to put him on the witness-tand.

He has a story to tell when Mr. Gon's ready to put him on the witness stand.

Lawson N. Fuller, Father Thomas Ducey and several other clergymen were among the spectators.

When Mr. Goff came in at 11.20 the crowd on the back benches broke out with loud applicable, but Chairman Lexow rapped sharply for order, and said that if their was any repetition of the demonstration the room would be cleared instantly.

The first thing Mr. Goff did was to request Capt. Rvan, who was present, to tell Policeman Cooney to come into the court-room and stay there and not lotter in the corridor. The Captain carried out this order. Capts. Creeden and Haughey wer also present, but not in uniform.

There was a delay of about 12n minutes while Mr. Goff and Mr. Moss cansulted with Chairman Lexow, and Dr. Parkhurst came in enveloped in a huge tray mackintosh and took his seat near the counsel's table. Mr. Moss was asked the delay was caused by the absence of Commissioner Sheehan and head it was not, other matters of mysterious importance had transpired, he said, which must be settled before the proceedings could go on. There was no hope of getting the Herman woman over to-day, he said.

The suspense was finally relieved by Mr. Goff, who said that a matter of great of setting the Herman woman over today, he said.

The suspense was finally relieved by Mr. Goff, who said that a matter of great importance had come to the knowledge of the counsel for the Committee, which had been investigated so far as was possible, but he said he was not yet ready to put in any evidence regarding the matter on account of the extreme difficulty of bringing out the facts. It would require further investigation, he said. It was intimated that the matter was of a political nature.

MRS. HERMAN UNDECIDED.

Doesn't Know Whether to Appear Before the Lexow Senators.

Mrs. Matilda Herman is in a cell a Police Headquarters, Jersey City, and still undecided whether she will testify before the Lxow Committee vol-She stated this morning that she would do so, and an hour later recon-sidered her decision and said she would not. Finally she determined to abide by her husband's decision. She has, however, been unable to see him. She applied to Justice Potts to-day for permission to go to Hoboken for the roose of seeing him, alleging that he confined to bed with a fractured. The court refused to grant her reset on the grounds of having no jurisator Daly said to-day that he apply to Justice Lippincott in Su-pus at noon. He denied positively that he is retained by the New York police captains to keep Mrs. Hermann away from the Lexow Committee, and says he was retained simply for the purpose of advising her of her rights. He says that, according to the laws of New Jersey, she cannot waive extradition proceedings, and go to New York voluntarily.

Dirk Ejected by the Police. Gustave Dirk, who retained Daly, hovered about Police Headquarters all night, endeavoring to get a communication to Mrs. Hermann, and was ejected by the police. He finally left, after being threatened with arrest.

Arrangements were completed to send Mrs. Herman to the county jail at 11 o'clock, but she requested to be allowed to remain at Headquarters until she received an answer to a letter she had sent her husband, requesting his immediate presence.

sent her husband, requesting his immediate presence.

William R. Barricks is here, representing the legal interests of the Lexow Committee. He will oppose the application for a writ of habear corpus.

Mrs. Herman says Gustave Dirk, who retained Senator Daly, and who Mr. Goff alleges is the go-between for the police officers, has been in her husband's employ for eighteen years as a furniture maker.

Chief of Police Murphy denies that there were several police officers at the depot to aid in intercepting Mrs. Hermann, He disclaims any knowledge of a conspiracy prior to the arrests, though he believes now that one did exist.

"Tim's" Lawyers Nt Ready to Appear This Morning.

The order requiring the Board of Poice Commissioners to show cause why an injunction should not be issued re-Simpson's name on the Republican baliots, came up for argument before Justice Barrett, in Supreme Court Chambers, 11.15 o'clock this morning.
Counsel for "Tim" Campbell asked a postponement, stating that two of Campbell's lawyers were busy in other courts. Assistant Corporation Counsel Connelly opposed an adjournment on behalf of the Police Board, as did also Simpson's counsel.
Justice Barrett said that as Campbell's secured the order to show cause returnable to-day, his counsel should be ready to go on with the argument.
Justice Barrett finally consented to adjourn the argument until 12 o'clock, but said that it was a matter of public importance and must proceed then. Simpson's name on the Republican bal-

NO TERMS WITH DIVVER.

Gilroy Will Premise Nothing in Return for that Resignation.

Mayor Gliroy was asked this morning he had heard from Patrick Divver "No, no, no," he sald; "I have not heard a word from Divyer. I know nothing of his intentions. But"—and here the Mayor grew very emphatic— "you can say positively that I will make no terms with him even if he offers his resignation. "The newspapers have stated that Divver wants to name his successor as a condition of his resigning. He has not asked me to make such terms, and if he did ask me I would refuse emphatically,"

VERY VOLUBLE, BUT HARMLESS.

The Chief Magistrate Expected to Return to Washington This Afternoon.

The first campaign crank materialized this morning at the residence of Dr. Joseph D. Bryant, where President Cleveland is stopping while in this city. About 10 o'clock a well-dressed, heavyset man, with a gray beard and wear-ing eyeglasses, rang Dr. Bryant's door-bell.

He told the servant who opened the door that he wanted to see the President. The servant called Dr. Bryant, who came to the door, and who at once recognized the caller as Dr. Richard Goerdeler, whose eccentricities, both in this country and abroad, have caused him to be stamped as a harmiess crank.

Dr. Bryant politely, but firmly, refused to admit Goerdeler to the house. Goerdeler became excited, and demanded to be shown in to the President at once.

"You have no right," he said, "to keep a citizen from seeing the President of
